

2014 Schedule of Special Musical Events at the Hedgehog

- Fri. Mar. 21 7:30 pm Richard Smith & Julie Adams - Nashville Guitar & Cello Duo
One of the Hedgehog's favorite performers. Richard is perhaps the "absolute most talented" guitarist on the face of the earth today. He has mastered nearly every style of music, and does it better than almost anyone else. Julie's cello work has been heard on top recordings, and you will not believe the beauty of their music as a duo. Do not miss! We expect a larger than normal attendance for this show. Reserve today! ($20)
- Sat., Mar 29 7:00 pm The Half-Step Sisters with D. Mark Conway and John Andrew Bellner
Old-timey meets western swing meets Americana. Julia Conway and Katie Burk recently appeared on A Prairie Home Companion radio show with Garrison Keillor. Here's your opportunity to hear this spectacular band live. ($10)
- Sat., Apr. 12 7:00 pm Troika
Indianapolis-based Eastern European, gypsy, and folk band with superb musicianship. Featuring Dianna Davis, Mario Joven, and Sarah Skreko. ($15)
- Sat., Apr. 19 7:00 pm Bleu Django
Indiana's premier gypsy swing band will present a multi-media presentation and live performance on the music made famous by the Quintet of the Hot Club of France which featured gypsy guitarist Django Reinhardt and jazz violinist Stephane Grappelli. Violinist Carolyn Dutton will be joined by guitarists Daryl Jones and Bob Foster with Hunt Wiley on upright bass. This music is heard in movies, TV commercials, and will have your toes tapping in no time. ($15)
- Fri., Apr. 25 7:30 pm Micah Kunzer, vocalist/guitarist
Come hear one of northern Hamilton County's most talented teenagers sing and play the guitar. Her charming style and personality will captivate your attention.
- Sat., May 3 7:00 pm Myles and Tim Thompson
From Nashville, Tennessee.
Live, the Thompsons present high-octane instrumental and vocal duets of improvised originals and classics reminiscent of legendary artists such as Chet Atkins, Stephan Grappelli, Chick Corea, Jackson Browne, Sam Bush and more. Although influenced by the masters, their down-to-earth style is all their own — a one-of-a-kind combination of improvisational jazz, traditional folk, singer-songwriter, country, rock and world music. ($20)
- Sat., May 17 7:00 pm Guitarist Ray Cummins
Chet Atkins was one of the smoothest guitar pickers of the 20th Century. Well let me tell you, Ray Cummins is also as smooth as glass in the Atkins style. If you close your eyes, you'll feel his music touch your soul like no other guitarist can. Ray performed for many years as guitarist for "The Round Mound of Sound" Kenny Price of Hee Haw fame. He has performed with many top stars including Roy Clark and Ernest Tubb to name a few. Ray has been a featured performer for the past several years at the Chet Atkins Appreciation Society in Nashville. He has also been the featured guest artist with several symphony orchestras in the U.S. ($20)
- Sat., May 24 7:00 pm Grammy Award-winning musician Bill Mize
Applauded by critics and guitar enthusiasts alike for his composition, tone and multi-part style, Grammy-winning guitarist Bill Mize is a guitarist's guitarist who is a past winner of the prestigious Walnut Valley Festival Fingerstyle Competition in Winfield, Kansas. His tone is lovely and his technique is state-of-the-art. You do not want to miss this one! ($20)

New national touring artist shows are constantly being added as touring schedules become finalized, so stay tuned by visiting the Hedgehog regularly, or by keeping informed through our Facebook page or with our weekly emails. Scheduled shows may be subject to changes also due to artist tour routing changes beyond our control. Our regular pool of pro-level local musicians will continue to provide you with affordable music & entertainment on the remaining weekends. Remember, even they play throughout the region at other venues, too. Our goal is to provide you with affordable, high-quality entertainment. Call us at 317-984-3560 for additional information.
