

HEDGEHOG MUSIC SHOWCASE SCHEDULE FOR 2015

Sat., Nov. 7 7:00 PM Spencer Mitchell

Spencer calls his music progressive aggressive acoustic. This event has a special element added to it...it will have a promotional video shoot taking place at the Hedgehog. Here is your opportunity to watch and hear the show as it is being taped for future use. Free admission, donations are appreciated to help cover our expenses.

Fri., Nov. 13 7:30 PM Rhythm Future Quartet

Gypsy jazz is all the rage! Jason Anick (violinist with John Jorgenson's Quintet) has been to the Hedgehog several times, and he is one fantastic violinist that does the style of Stephane Grappelli as well as anyone. Olli Soikkeli is the "Django Reinhardt" of the group, and you need to come to the show to watch how fast his fingers move all over the fretboard. This is one band that you do not want to miss. They are top-drawer all the way. We recommend reservations for this show. ($20)

Sat., Nov. 21 7:00 PM Tim Coffey & Elk Ridge Bluegrass

Tim Coffey & Elk Ridge is more than your average bluegrass band. The band is quite popular at bluegrass festivals during the summer months, and has many fans throughout the midwest. No wonder, the vocals are tight and the musicianship is superb. You'll delight in their music, and we want to make this event one that will have you coming back for more. ($10)

More shows are always being added, so check back often for the latest schedule.

(Updated Oct. 13, 2015)